Arriving by Car

- Attention! If you use a Navigation System, please enter „Wallstraße“ instead of „Collegienstraße“ because the latter is a pedestrian area.
- Lutherstadt Wittenberg could easily be reached through the Autobahn (freeway) A 9 Berlin-Leipzig-München.
- Coming from the south (München / Leipzig), exit the Autobahn (freeway) A9 at the exitpoint „Coswig“ and take the B 187. You would reach Wittenberg after approx. 25 KM. Once there, follow the signposting Richtung Zentrum. At the level of the newly built Beltway, take the right at the traffic lights. You shall drive across a bridge and immediately thereafter, you take your right and array again at the right lane at the big intersection (see blue arrow). You are now on the Halleschen Straße.
- Coming from the north (Hamburg / Berlin), you may also take the exit „Coswig“ (see above) or you exit the freeway A9 already at the exit point „Klein Marzehns“ and drive through the localities Straach and Reinsdorf to Wittenberg. At the entrance to Wittenberg, you shall take the second exit at the rotary (roundabout traffic) into the Puschkinstraße. Follow this street until it ends (see green arrow). Once at the end, take your right and drive straight across the big intersection in order to get to the Hallesche Straße.
- Once at the Halleschen Straße, take the 1st street on your left (Elbstraße). After about 100 meters take the street on your right (Wallstraße). This street leads to a public parking lot after approx. 600 meters from where you shall see on your left the big building (buff or sand coloured) of the old Wittenberg University „Leucorea“ (see black arrow / # 7).
- Shortly before arriving the Leucorea building take your left to enter the parking lot of the foundation where you shall park free of charge.
- The Wittenberg-Center for Global Ethics is located in the Leucorea foundation, Entrance # 62c on the 1st floor. (Registration in room 1.44.)

Arriving by train

- Destination: „Lutherstadt Wittenberg“ Hauptbahnhof (Attention: not Wittenberge)
- The ICE line Berlin-München goes through Wittenberg (ICE departs from Berlin or München every two hours to Wittenberg and vice versa).
- The Leucorea Foundation is at a 10 minutes walking distance from the Wittenberg main train station (Walk in the direction Altstadt, Collegienstraße, Fußgängerzone)
